Dear Cub Scout Leader:

Welcome to the 1999 Pow Wow. By participating in this outstanding training opportunity, you are demonstrating your commitment to offering the best program possible for Cub and Webelos Scouts.

This book contains a wealth of information and resources that will help you deliver a quality program to the young people in your den and pack.

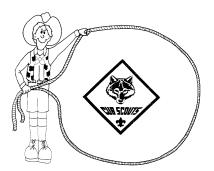

I know you will have a tremendous experience today. Your Pow Wow staff is comprised of dedicated Cub Leaders with many successful years in Scouting. They have planned 50 interesting and informative classes designed to help you and the other participants to be better Cub Scout Leaders.

I want to personally congratulate you for being involved in Scouting. Thank you for being a positive role model and a mentor for the youth you serve. Because of you, they will have an opportunity to develop into good, productive citizens.

Have a great day, learn lots, and have fun. God bless you, and good Scouting.

Warmest personal regards,

WILLIAM C. GAMBLE Scout Executive

CIRCLE TEN ROUNDUP Cub Leader Pow Wow January 23, 1999

A hearty howdy to my fellow Cub Scout Leaders!

Thank you for joining us as we head up the trail of adventure found at a Circle Ten Council Pow Wow. As you go through your day of fun, fellowship, education and discovery, we know that you will find a journey filled with laughter and friendship. More important, you will find a saddle bag full of new ideas to bring our common aims of character, citizenship, and fitness to those wonderful little cowboys waiting in our dens and packs.

The wonderful programs and classes that you will ride into today have been in the works for almost a year. My sincere thanks to our program trail bosses Bennie McBride, Pam Peveto, Robert Fox, Shane McBride, and Toby Gobar. Bill Lee has led our registration process, Pat Goold has headed a team addressing participant services, and Carol Witt has served as administrative support. Our wonderful Pow Wow book would not have been possible without the dedication and hard work of Terri Cody and her team. I would also like to thank Pat Patey for his complete support as our professional liaison at Circle Ten Council. It is the wisdom, experience and enthusiasm of these Scouters, along with the many talented and committed individuals you will see in our classrooms and hallways, that have made this day happen.

Now, it's time to settle into the saddle for a great ride. Enjoy your day, learn something new, and take our warm good wishes home to the Cub Scouts and Scouters in your home dens and packs.

Head 'em up, move 'em out!

Yours in Scouting,

Sandy Wunsch
