MAY 2005 - Cub Pet Pals

It's not just our parents and siblings who live with us but our pets do as well. Learn to care for a pet and draw or take their picture to show at the pack meeting. The American Humane Association has designated the first full week of May as "Be kind to Animals Week." Discuss responsible care of pets. Visit a local pet shop and see different kinds of exotic pets. Make something for your pet like a toy or a new home at the den meeting. Remember, don't pet strange animals.

Quotations

Quotations contain the wisdom of the ages, and are a great source of inspiration for Cubmaster's minutes, material for an advancement ceremony or an insightful addition to a Pack Meeting program cover.

"An animal has been made by God, just as you have been. He is therefore a fellow-creature."

– Lord Robert Baden-Powell

"It's funny how dogs and cats know the inside of folks better than other folks do, isn't it?" – Eleanor H. Porter (1868 - 1920), Pollyanna, 1912

"A boy can learn a lot from a dog: obedience, loyalty, and the importance of turning around three times before lying down."

– Robert Benchley (1889 - 1945)

"If you are a dog and your owner suggests that you wear a sweater, suggest that he wear a tail."

– Fran Lebowitz (1950 - )

"If a dog jumps in your lap, it is because he is fond of you; but if a cat does the same thing, it is because your lap is warmer." –

– Alfred North Whitehead (1861 - 1947)

"We call them dumb animals, and so they are, for they cannot tell us how they feel, but they do not suffer less because they have no words." – Anna Sewell (1820 - 1878), Black Beauty, 1877

"I like pigs. Dogs look up to us. Cats look down on us. Pigs treat us as equals".

"Outside of a dog, a book is probably man's best friend; inside of a dog, it's too dark to read." – Groucho Marx

Cubmaster's Minute*Life Lessons Learned from a Dog:*

1. If you stare at someone long enough, eventually you'll get what you want.
2. Don't go out without ID.
3. Be aware of when to hold your tongue, and when to use it.
4. Leave room in your schedule for a good nap.
5. Always give people a friendly greeting.
6. When you do something wrong, always take responsibility (as soon as you're dragged shamefully out from under the bed).
7. If it's not wet and sloppy, it's not a real kiss.

Dogs as Teachers

If a dog were your teacher you'd learn stuff like:

When loved ones come home, always run to greet them.

Never pass up the opportunity to go for a joyride.

Allow the experience of fresh air and the wind in your face to be pure ecstasy.

When it's in your best interest--practice obedience.

Let others know when they've invaded your territory.
 Take naps and stretch before rising.
 Run, romp, and play daily.
 Avoid biting when a simple growl will do.
 On warm days, stop to lie on your back on the grass.
 On hot days, drink lots of water and flop under a shady tree.
 When you're happy, dance around and wag your entire body.
 Delight in the simple joy of a long walk.
 Eat with gusto and enthusiasm. Stop when you have had enough.
 Be loyal.
 Never pretend to be something you're not.
 If what you want lies buried, dig until you find it.
 When someone is having a bad day, be silent, sit close by and nuzzle them gently.

Ceremonies

Opening and Closing - Noah's Ark

Props: Make an ark out of a large sheet of cardboard set up so that the animals can enter and leave. Boys can also have pictures or stuffed animals of the animal they represent. Cubmaster or Den Leader playing Noah can be in a robe or other costume. He could also be holding a list to check off the animals as they arrive.

(Cubs enter two by two)

1st set of Cubs: We are the Tigers.
 Noah: (checking list) Please enter. Take the last stall on the right. (Tigers enter)
 2nd set of Cubs: We are the Bobcats.
 Noah: Good to see you. You have the third stall on the left (Bobcats enter)
 3rd set of Cubs: We are the Wolves.
 Noah: Welcome. Second level, fifth stall on the left. (Wolves enter)
 4th set of Cubs: We are the Bears.
 Noah: Good. Come on in. Sixth stall on the left. (Bears enter)
 Now all the animals are aboard and we are ready to start. Let the Pack Meeting begin!

(During the Pack Meeting at spaced intervals Noah comes out to send the birds to find dry land. The last bird does not return which leads right into the closing)

1st Interval, Noah: Fly away bird, find me dry land. (Pretends to send bird then waits a few moments) Oh, the bird returns. No dry land yet.

2nd Interval, Noah: Fly away bird, find me dry land. (Pretends to send bird. After a moment it returns) Oh, you have brought me a twig from a tree. Still too soon to land.

Closing, Noah: Fly away bird, find me dry land. (Sends bird, waits, bird does not return) Hooray, there is dry land. The ark is aground. Come animals, come out of the ark. It is time to start living on the ground again. (Animals come out of ark, stretching and scratching)

All animals & Noah: Ahh, look at the rainbow!

Noah: Thank you for joining us on our journey.

Noah's Ark Advancement

Props: Robe and walking stick for Noah (Cubmaster) and similar costume for his assistant (Awards Chair or Assistant Cubmaster). Also needed is a 1' x 6' plank to cross over into the Ark.

Cubmaster: Well, we finally have completed building the Ark. I'm sure glad we didn't have to build two of these. The weather shows it will only be a few hours before the rains start, so we better get busy rounding up all the animals for the trip. I must remember, though not to let the termites go with us!

Assistant: Noah, what animals do you want me to round up and bring aboard first?

Cubmaster: The first one will be the Bobcats. Will you please call them to the Ark?

Assistant: Will (read names) and their parents please come forward and cross over onto the Ark? (Cubmaster presents awards.)

Cubmaster: It's time to bring aboard the Wolves. Will you please call them to the Ark? (Repeat for Bear, Arrow Points, Webelos Badge and Activity Badges) We have certainly called aboard the most important animals to the Ark. Of course, most of you recognize them as Cub Scouts. And just like the two of each species of animals that were on Noah's Ark, Cub Scouts are famous for doing things in twos:

To do their best,
 To do their duty to God and their country,
 To help other people,
 To obey the law of the Pack.

Congratulations to each Cub Scout who has earned and been presented an award tonight. We know that you have learned through your accomplishments more knowledge and character that will carry you through Boy Scouts and on to successful young men.

Mothers Day Closing Ceremony

I Love You, Mother (by Joy Allison)

“I love you, mother” said little John;
 Then forgetting his work, his cap went on,
 And he was off to the backyard swing,
 Leaving his mother his room to clean.

“I love you, mother” said little Phil,
 “I love you more than tongue can tell.”
 Then he teased and pouted half the day
 Till his mother rejoiced when he went to play.

“I love you, mother” said little Dan.
 “Today I’ll help you all I can.”
 To the cradle then he did softly creep
 And rocked the baby till it fell asleep.

Then stepping softly he took the broom
 And swept the floor and dusted the room.
 Busy and happy all day was he,
 Helpful and cheerful as a boy should be.

“I love you, mother,” again they said,
 Three little boys going to bed.
 How do you think the mother guessed,
 Which of them really loved her best?

Run-Ons

- When is the vet busiest?
  - When it's raining cats and dogs.
- What happened when the dog ate his owner's watch?
  - He got a lot of ticks.
- What is a baseball dog?
  - One that catches flies, chases fowls, and dashes for home when he sees the catcher.
- Why did the dog take a wishbone to bed?
  - Because he wanted to make his dreams come true.
- Where do you find a no-legged dog?
  - Right where you left him.

Two dogs meet each other in the park...

Dog 1: Hi, I'm Rover. What's your name?

Dog 2: I don't know, but I think it's "Down Boy."

Boy 1: Why do fire fighters use Dalmatians?

Boy 2: They use them to keep the crowds back.

Boy 3: No, they're just for good luck.

Boy 1: They use the dogs to find the fire hydrant.

Boy: Doctor, can you treat my dog?

Doctor: I would, but I'm all out of dog treats!

Skits*Doggie Doctor*

A person comes to the psychologist and says that he needs help; he thinks that he is a dog, holding up his hands like a dog begging. Throughout the skit, the person acting like a dog, does dog-like things, like scratching behind his ears, whining, etc. Doctor asks how long he has had this problem. Ever since he was a puppy is the reply. The doctor asks if he will lie on the couch but the person says that he can't since he can't get on the furniture. The doctor's advice is to make sure that he gets all his shots and doesn't go chasing any cars.

Puppy in the Box

Props: A cardboard box with holes, cup of water inside, and a stuffed dog (or rabbit, etc.)

Announcer: This scene takes place on the street outside a grocery store.
(Several participants are gathered around outside the store, chatting.)

Roger: (Enters holding the box) Hi guys, would you please hold this box for me while I go into the store? (Exits)

Martin: I wonder what's in the box?

Gerry: I don't know, but something is leaking out!

Bob: (Rubs finger against the bottom of box, then licks finger) Hmm, it tastes like lemon soda.

Martin: (Also rubs box and tastes finger) No. I think it's more like chicken soup.

Roger: (Returns, looks in box) Oh, you naughty puppy!

Puppy in the Box (Version 2)

Cast: Owner, 1st Pedestrian, 2 Friends, box

Setting: Street Corner

Owner: (Walking up to #1) Would you hold my box? I have to go into a store for a moment.

#1: Sure! Be glad to.

#2: (Walks up.) Hey! What's in the box?

#1: I don't know. This guy comes up to me and hands it to me. Hey! It's leaking! Maybe it's ice cream and it's melting. Let's taste it. (Taste drip) Tastes like vanilla ice cream to me!

#2: (Tastes it.) Chocolate it is, my friend. Hey Joe! Try this -- what does it taste like?

Joe: (Tastes it.) Definitely pistachio.

#1: Naw! It's vanilla!

#2: I told you, it's chocolate!

(Owner comes back. )

#1: Mister -- what's in the box? Vanilla ice cream?

#2: Or chocolate?

Joe: It tastes like pistachio to me!

Owner: How foolish of you guys. That's my pet dog!

Lost Dog

Setting: Dave is crying

Dave: Boo hoo hoo!

Bob: Hey Dave, why are you crying?

Dave: (still sniffing) I lost my dog

Bob: Maybe he'll come home.

Dave: No, he won't come home. He's lost.

Bob: Why don't you put an ad in the lost and found column of the newspaper?

Dave: No. It wouldn't do any good.

Bob: Well, why not?

Dave: Because my dog can't read!

Smart Dog

Tom: That's a nice dog you have.

John: Thank you. He's nice and he's smart.

DOG: Arf!

Tom: A smart dog, huh? What's his name?

John: Snoop.

DOG: Arf!

Tom: What kind of dog is he anyway?

John: A police dog.

DOG: Arf

Tom: A police dog? He doesn't look anything like a police dog.

John: Of course he doesn't. He's a police detective in disguise!

DOG: Arf!

Limericks*Be Kind to Dumb Animals (by John Ciardi)*

There once was an ape in a zoo
Who looked out through the bars and saw – You!
Do you think it's fair
To give poor apes a scare?
I think it's a mean thing to do!

A Personal Experience
(by Oliver Herford)

A puppy whose hair was so flowing
There really was no means of knowing
Which end was his head
Once stopped me and said,
“Please, sir, am I coming or going?”

Shaggy Dog

There was a small maiden named Maggie,
Whose dog was enormous and shaggy,
The front end of him
Looked vicious and grim –
But the tail end was friendly and waggy.

Songs

The Wrong End
(Tune: My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean)

Oh, rabbits have bright, shiny noses,
I'm telling you this as a friend.
The reason their noses are shiny:
The powder puff's on the wrong end.

Wrong end – wrong end –
The powder puff's on the wrong end –
Wrong end –

Wrong end – wrong end –
The powder puff's on the wrong end!

Inchworm

Inch worm, inch worm
Measuring the marigolds
You and your arithmetic
You'll probably go far
Inch worm, Inch worm
Measuring the marigolds
Seems to me you'd stop and see
How beautiful they are
Two and two are four
Four and four are eight
Eight and eight are sixteen sixteen and sixteen are thirty-two

I Have A Dog
(Tune: “Reuben, Reuben, I've Been Thinking”)

I have a dog his name is Fido.
I have raised him from a pup.
He can stand upon his hind legs,
If you hold his front legs up!

The Cat Came Back

Old farmer Johnson had troubles of his own
He had a yellow cat that wouldn't leave him alone
He tried and he tried to give that cat away
Gave him to a man going very far away

*But the cat came back, the very next day
 Oh the cat came back, they thought he was a gonner
 But the cat came back, he just couldn't stay away, away, away*

Gave it to a man going way out west
 Told him to give it to the one he loved the best
 First the train jumped the track, then it slipped the rail
 No one is alive today to tell the sad detail

Gave it to someone going up in a balloon
 Told him to give it to the man in the moon
 Balloon came down about 90 miles away
 But where the pilot is today I cannot say

Be Kind to Your Web Footed Friends

Be kind to your web-footed friends
 For a duck may be somebody's mother
 Who lives all alone in a swamp
 Where it's very cold and damp
 You might think that this is the end
 Well it's not caus' I know another stanza
 Be kind to your web-footed friends
 For that cop may be Dick Tracy's brother
 Who lives all alone on the beat
 On a dark and dingy street
 You might think that this is the end
 Well, Why not!

Boa-Constrictor

I'm being swallowed by a boa-constrictor
 I'm being swallowed by a boa-constrictor
 And I don't like it one little bit
 Oh, no, he's got my toe
 O gee, O gee, he's up to my knee
 Oh, my, Oh, my, he's reached my thigh
 O fiddle, O fiddle, he's at my middle
 Oh heck, Oh heck, he's up to my neck
 O dread, O dread, He's got my GULP!!!

Applauses

- Big Bear: Stand up. Pretend to be a bear standing on his hind legs and give a greate big "GROWL".
- Snake: Put hands together above your head. While standing, slither with your body in place and say, "SSSSSSSSSSSSSS".

  - 1 picture of your favorite animal
  - acrylic paint- any color
  - fine tipped marker
- craft glue
  - paint brush- use a small foam one as they don't leave brush marks

  - ribbon or magnet

Directions:

1. Center your picture on top of cardboard and trace around it.
2. Use craft knife to cut out hole for picture.
3. Paint the front of the frame in the color of your choice.
4. Glue treats on to the frame.
5. On one of the treats or an open space on the frame write the animal's name, plus the dates of birth and death if they are now little angels.
6. Seal with sealer.
7. On the back side of the frame glue or tape the picture in place.
8. Add ribbon or magnet to the back to hang.

Bird Cookies

Make tasty cookie treats for your feathered friends.

Supplies:

- 1 cup softened unsalted butter
- 3 beaten eggs
- 3½ cups flour
- 1 tsp. baking soda
- Pinch of salt
- Mixed birdseed

Directions:

1. Stir flour, baking soda, and salt together in a large bowl.
2. Add butter and eggs. Mix until well blended.
3. Roll dough out on floured surface and cut different shapes with cookie cutters.
4. Make a hole in the top of each cookie with a drinking straw.

5. Press birdseed into each side of the cookies.
6. Bake in oven at 350 degrees for 10-12 minutes.
7. After Bird Cookies have cooled, tie a ribbon or string through the hole and hang on a tree branch.

Paper Animals

With a few folds, you can transform the drawn shape of any four-legged animal into a 3D miniature.

Supplies: Paper, Scissors, Markers, Tape

Directions:

1. On a scrap of paper, draw the outline of an animal as if it were lying flat on the ground with head, legs and tail extended (a kind of road-kill effect).
2. Cut out the shape, and then fold at the joints.
3. Use a pen to draw in the whiskers, eyes, spots and other details.

Pencil Pup

Supplies: (4) pinch-style wooden clothespins, Wood Glue, Felt, Googly Eyes, Pom-pom, Markers, Pencil

Directions:

1. To form the front end of the dog pinch open a clothespin and apply glue to the inner surface of the opened end. Then clamp the glued end onto a second clothespin, just behind the metal spring.
2. For the dog's tail end, glue and clamp together the last two clothespins so that one holds the other wide open. When the glue is dry, fit the opened end of the back half onto the lower end of the front half. Apply glue to bond the two sections.
3. From the felt, cut out floppy ears and circular paws. Then glue ears and paws, the googly eyes, and the pom-pom nose onto the dog.
4. Add spots or other distinguishing details with colored markers. Finally, pinch open the dog's mouth and insert a pencil, balancing its weight equally on both sides.

Pasta Pals

Supplies: Dry pasta, Pipe cleaners, Glue, Googly eyes, Scissors, Felt

Directions:

1. Create the animal's torso by sliding a few pieces of pasta onto the center of a pipe cleaner. (Wagon wheels are perfect for a chubby belly; rigatoni for a lean one.)
2. Bend the pipe cleaner on both sides of the torso to form a neck and tail. Add more pasta and fold the tips of the pipe cleaner to hold the pieces in place.
3. Bend the neck (between pastas) into a right angle to form a face.
4. To attach legs, ears, or horns, twist shorter lengths of pipe cleaner around the body and string them with macaroni. You can even glue on miniature soup pastas for a mane or fur.

Hare Hop

Equipment: Per team: 1 pair of rabbit ears (made from cardboard, cotton and wire attached to a hat); 1 small balloon and 1 large balloon for each member; lots of string; 1 chair for each team.

Formation: Relay.

Divide the group into teams of six. Line up each team in straight lines at one end of the playing area. Place the chairs, one for each team, at the opposite end of the playing area.

On 'Go', the first player of each team dons the rabbit ears, while his teammates blow up one small and one large balloon. One long piece of string is tied to the small balloon. The first player then ties the string around his waist, with the balloon hanging from behind, to represent his tail. He hugs the large balloon to his tummy, to represent the fluffy underside of a bunny. Then, with his ears and his two balloons, he hops down to the chair, hugs the large balloon until it breaks, and sits on his 'tail' until the small balloon breaks. When both balloons have burst, he hops back to the team where he gives the ears to the second player. The fun is helping each rabbit get 'dressed' and in cheering each bunny on. The relay ends when all bunnies have lost their tummies and tails.

Tadpoles

Equipment: 1 ball; whistle

Formation: Teams

The Pack divides into two teams. Team A stands in a circle with one Cub in the center, holding the ball. Team B stands in line, like the tadpole's tail, coming from the middle.

When the leader calls 'GO', the Cub in the center of the circle starts to throw the ball to his team, one by one. Meantime, the Cubs in Team B in turn run around the circle and back to their places. When the last Cub in Team B is back in his place, the leader blows the whistle and Team A stops. Team A says how many throws the Cub in the center has made and when the teams change places, Team B tries to beat Team A's score.

Cat and Mouse

The Pack lines up in 4 or 5 lines, each line of Cubs joining hands across. One Cub is chosen as 'Cat' and another as 'Mouse', the 'Cat' chases the 'Mouse' up and down the lines. When the leader blows the whistle, the Cubs turn at right angles and form lines going down, by holding hands with the members of their new line. When the leader blows the whistle again, the lines form across once more. When the 'Cat' has caught the 'Mouse' a new pair are chosen.

Cat's Tail

Equipment: A supply of colored yarn, 2 colors, one for each team

Hide several pieces of cloth or yarn - a different color for each team. One Cub on each team is a 'cat without a tail'. At the signal, all Cubs search for tails of their color. As a piece is found, it should be tied to the belt of the cat who ties others to it as they are found. The winner is the side whose cat has the longest tail at the end of five minutes.

Poor Kitty

Equipment: 1 blindfold

Arrange the group in a circle with a blindfolded player in the center. Then have the players move around the circle very quietly. The blindfolded player should approach the circle in any direction and secure a victim who, in a disguised voice, says 'poor kitty' and then imitates the 'meow' of a cat. If the blindfolded player fails to identify his prisoner, he releases him and the game continues. If he succeeds, the two change places.

The Frog Hop

Draw a finish line about 25' from the start and line the players up about 3' apart. At "Go" they race by jumping first to the right, then to the left, then straight ahead. This procedure is followed until someone crosses the finish line.

Dog Chases Its Tail

This game mimics the silliness and futility of a dog chasing its tail. You need a bandanna. Have the players line up, holding each other around the waist. (Do not allow kids to hook fingers through belts or belt loops--this results in ripped clothing and hurt fingers.) Have the last player tuck a bandanna in his pocket, or under his belt or waistband, so that it hangs down like a tail. Next, the front of the line begins to chase the end of the line, attempting to grab the bandanna. Players in the middle can help or hinder the head or the tail, depending on their whims. If the line breaks, the player who let go must step out, shortening the line.

Poodle

In this guessing game, the word "poodle" is substituted for a verb. To play, one boy picks a secret verb, then the other boys ask questions using poodle in place of the verb: "Can you poodle in a pool?" "Does poodling make you tired?" The child who correctly guesses the secret verb gets to choose the next one. Who knew verbs could be this much fun?

Doggie Where's Your Bone

It is an inside game. A boy plays the part of the dog. He sits in a chair with his back to the den. An eraser or another object is put under the chair. That is the bone. While the dog is turned around with his eyes closed someone sneaks up and steals the bone and hides it somewhere on his person. Then everyone sings: Doggy, Doggy, where's your bone? Somebody's stole it from your home. Guess who! It might be you! Then the dog has three chances to guess who took it. Sometimes it is left under his chair. If the dog guesses right then he gets to do it again. If he guesses wrong then the boy who has the bone gets a turn as the dog.

Cats Get Your Corner

You pick someone to be it. The person that is "it" gets a ball (like a standard red kickball or maybe something softer like a nerf ball). All the cats pick a corner to stand in. The den leader acts as an umpire. When everyone has a corner then the ump yells "cats get a corner". Then everyone takes off running for the corner that is next. Everyone is supposed to run in the same direction so no one should run into each other. While the cats are running, "it" tries to hit them with the ball. If you get hit you stand in the middle. The cat that never gets hit wins and becomes the next "it".
